

OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUÉ

SUBJECT : Burglary at the Headquarters of Missionaries Without Borders

The leadership of Missionnaires Sans Frontières (MSF) informs the public, its partners, members, and supporters that a burglary occurred during the night of Saturday, November 1st, at the organization's headquarters located in Biyem-Assi.

Unidentified individuals broke into the premises and stole various mission property (complete sound system, musical instruments, chairs, plasma screen, various equipment, sanitary items, etc.). The stolen items are estimated at over 10 million FCFA (approximately 17,000 USD).

A complaint has been filed with the competent authorities, who immediately opened an investigation to identify the perpetrators and recover the stolen property.

We give thanks to God that no loss of human life has been reported.

Missionnaires Sans Frontières remains confident in justice and divine protection, and continues its activities in service of the mission, with peace and faith.

The leadership extends its gratitude to all who have already expressed their support and issues a solemn call to all MSF communities, both in Cameroon and abroad, to stand firmly in prayer for:

- the security of our facilities,
- the full restoration of our headquarters,
- the protection of all our missionaries and collaborators,
- the success of the ongoing investigation.

May the peace of Christ remain with each one of you.
